III. (points) Two smooth thin tubes intersect at right angles in a level plane; each holds a particle of mass and charge .

For and , the initial separation of from crossing is ; is at . Their velocities are perpendicular, both , as shown; is Coulomb's constant.

Find their minimum separation in the subsequent motion.